

Poetry Series

george carroll
- poems -

Publication Date:

2011

Publisher:

Poemhunter.com - The World's Poetry Archive

george carroll(02/19/)

Received the gift of poetry late in life.

Eternal Promise

Thou can speak in unchanged tongue
Of where the devil brought you from for in the dense and thickened forest
Thou have flown to my home and now await me.

Fool I was to entreat me and be beguiled
Till heavens door hath closed forever more.
I the victim shall not curse the devil borne
For it is I who opened this door of evil.

Leave me as you found me, calling to the Lord.
For He is the creator who made me whole.
And too Him I shall abide till all is gone,
Except the heaven that He promised, faithfully.

george carroll